WIN A MacBook Pro

Metro has teamed up with Bundlebox.com to give away a MacBook Pro to one in every 250 readers.

Bundle Box is a new great way to save you, er, bundles on gadgets by shipping them over from the US and to get access to stuff that is simply not available here. Over 50 per cent of US websites deliver to only US addresses. Bundle Box provides you with your own US address where you can send or store purchases before shipping them across the pond at super competitive prices. If the US site doesn't accept your British credit card, just tell Bundle Box what you want and they buy it for you. Registration is free and there is no subscription fee or other hidden costs. To be in with a chance of bagging a 13-inch MacBook Pro, simply book a shipment with Bundle Box before January 9. Enter the exclusive Metro code when you register for the site and you'll be automatically entered into the prize giveaway. Metro code: iUw3QW. Terms & conditions apply and you can find these at www.bundlebox.com/metro
