NEW HOPE FOR SOUTH AFRICA

Battersea Power Station in South London was the venue for the fourth annual gala dinner for the South African health and education charity Ubuntu.

The 350 guests enjoyed a sumptuous meal before being addressed by host Earl Spencer. Next up was a "money-can't-buy" auction, with items from donors including Jimmy Choo and Kevin Spacey.

More than £745,000 was raised, which will go towards a comprehensive paediatric HIV clinic in the Eastern Cape, the first of its kind in the region.
