The Synergy Group acquired by HB Human Capital

HB Human Capital has acquired The Synergy Group, the specialist recruiter which serves a number of niche, private and public sector markets. Established in 1997 and with offices in both London and Leeds, The Synergy Group has developed especially strong positions in Housing, Care and Local Government markets.

Ian Wolter, CEO of HB Human Capital commented: "We've long competed with The Synergy Group and grudgingly admired their continual innovation, quality of service and relationships. I'm delighted to bring them into the group, it's a move which cements HB Human Capital as market leader in a number of key markets."

On completion on 20 May 2011, Keiran Ryan, MD of The Synergy Group commented: "The scale and reach of HB Human Capital gives us precisely the platform we need to enhance our business and to accelerate our growth and development."

The Synergy Group becomes the eighth business within HB Human Capital, a group founded by Tristan Ramus, chaired by James Caan and backed by Hamilton Bradshaw. Other members include Eden Brown, Resourcing Group and Caritas Recruitment.

Tristan Ramus commented, "This a another key milestone in the continued success and development of HBHC's buy and build strategy and is further testament to the quality of the team within all of the operating companies and the board of HBHC."
