

Are you ready to start your own recruitment company...?

Serial Entrepreneur James Caan Announces the Launch of his Third Search for the Next Recruitment Entrepreneur

To apply, or find out more, visit recruitmententrepreneur.com/apply-now

Recruitment Entrepreneur is James Caan's Venture Capital Investment Company. James provides entrepreneurs with the funding to build a business of real scale, as well as support and mentorship around strategy, IT, infrastructure, branding, marketing, finance and legal - all designed to help passionate individuals or teams grow sustainable, profitable recruitment companies in any sector.

"After 30 years in the industry, I am now in a position where I can share not only my financial capital, but also my intellectual capital and experience, with passionate people looking for the same opportunity I had - to build a multimillion pound recruitment business."

James Caan, CEO of Recruitment Entrepreneur.

As a result of the success of his last two Recruitment Entrepreneur campaigns, James has invested in three teams to date. To find out more about the entrepreneurs and why James backed them, take a look on the portfolio page of the new website.

Pablo Miller &
Jamie Russell

“The response to the opportunity has been absolutely overwhelming. I can’t believe how many strong candidates there are out there, and how many people have been bitten by the same entrepreneurial bug I was.”

James is now accepting applications for the third Recruitment Entrepreneur funding round

What James is looking for:

James is looking for dynamic people in any sector who are passionate about recruitment and ready to take the next step in their career by starting their own business. The ideal person would have at least five years of successful recruitment experience, and be a natural leader who can attract and manage talented people.

“Being a big biller and being a business leader are two very different things. All the people I have invested in have different strengths and levels of experience. The one thing they all share is a passion for recruitment, passion for their sector and the motivation to grow a business of true standing and scale in the market.”

Entrepreneurs can apply for backing from James Caan by visiting,

Recruitment Entrepreneur

Recruitment Entrepreneur is a seed capital investment company owned by James Caan. We invest in small or start-up businesses that want to grow to real scale and size and become respected competitors in their chosen market. We look to back people who want to build real capital value for themselves, rather than run boutique, lifestyle businesses. Our model is designed to provide, not only the capital required to scale, but support in every aspect of your business from mentorship, infrastructure, to training and development, business planning, legal services and financial services to IT, branding and marketing to help to entrepreneurs grow a sustainable and profitable recruitment company.

Hamilton Bradshaw

Founded and chaired by James Caan, Hamilton Bradshaw Private Equity launched in 2004. Its portfolio focuses primarily on the service sector, in particular recruitment. Today, HB is one of the world's Top 30 Recruitment companies and under the guidance of Caan, HB has won a reputation for investing in people with passion, operating with the utmost integrity and adding real value to every business they invest in.

James Caan

James Caan has always been passionate about encouraging entrepreneurship in the UK, from starting and successfully exiting three of his own recruitment companies to sitting on the panel of Dragon's Den, where he invested £1 million of his own capital into helping entrepreneurs realize their dream. Over the last two years, he has also run the Start Up Loans Company for the Government, an initiative which provides funding and mentoring to people looking to start their own venture. To date, the Start Up Loans company has backed over 15,000 entrepreneur at a run rate of 30 businesses a day.
